Installation Luncheon: Charles Vollaro

The June 2018 Installation Luncheon is 6/12/2018 at the Blue Goose in Stratford. So far 17 have signed up for the luncheon. Will be selling tickets here and at the May meeting. We are looking to have 30 attend.

Membership: Mary Ann Firgau

4 new members joined at the meeting.

Community Outreach: Dot Ward

Dot passed around the volunteer hours log for members to enter their hours.

Nominating: Dot Ward

Dot provided the list of officers and directors who have been nominated so far. In addition, we need one more 2-year director and one more 1-year director. She encouraged attendees to volunteer to serve. Dot will verify with the nominees that their AARP membership is current.

Elections will take place at the May membership meeting, with installation in June.

Health Advocate: Judy Duva

Judy read a poem on spring. She provided guidelines on creating a safer home included tips on preventing falls, protecting yourself from fire, medication storage, and safety in the kitchen, living room, bathroom and bedroom.

Programming: Phyllis Kupec

Next month's meeting will be on Senior Living Options. Lisa Bisson from Wesley Village and Jennifer Kochiss from Bishop Wicke will discuss medical/non-medical home care, adult day care, independent and assisted living and skilled nursing and rehab. For caregivers as well as individuals looking to plan for their own futures.

Refreshments will be served.

Phyllis met with Lisa who gave her a tour of Wesley Village.

Public Relations: Marilyn Plainer

No report.

Hospitality: Joan Platt

Joan thanked those who provided refreshments. She has a sign up sheet for next month.

Legislative: Byron Peterson
